An Interview with a Wise Woman

Tampa, FL (January 29, 2024) – On January 3, 2024, Good Reads Author’s Corner hosts, Cece Shatz and Joanne Weiland had the honor of interviewing Celeste Solum. Celeste is an investigator, researcher, author, and broadcaster. Her background includes photojournalism, environmental medicine, government, the military, and organic farming.

The interview attracted several live guests and you can watch it here!

Celeste, a strong Christian woman, who at five years old, realized she had special gifts. Her father, who was in the Navy, took declassified information and translated it into layman's terms for the public. She followed in his footsteps stepping out in the manner of a few chosen biblical women onto the spiritual and global stage. She was born for such a time as this. She is the founder of Celestial Report and ShepherdsHeart.life.

Celeste chronicles the space and earth conditions that trigger the rise and fall of modern & ancient civilizations, calendars, and volatile economies. Her niche and coverage include the spiritual, current events, government, military, and medicine and teaching DIY (Do-It-Yourself) skills such as the lost art of gardening for food and medicine, food preservation, making luxurious health and beauty products, animal husbandry, designing a home for your unique expression of ambiance and practicality.

Much like Isaiah, Celeste provides messages to the people on the celestial report one of her shows. She creates videos, blogs, and newsletters, plus offers consultation sessions for a fee. You can subscribe to her shows, purchase her books, and support her research by visiting her website. You can also reach Celeste directly via email.
