

JOHN M. SNYDER, GUN LAW EXPERT

John M. Snyder is the Gun Dean, according to Human Events. Named “dean of gun lobbyists” by The Washington Post and The New York Times, “the senior rights activist in Washington” by Shotgun News, and a “champion of the right to self-defense” by The Washington Times, John M. Snyder has spent 45 years as a proponent of the individual Second Amendment civil right to keep and bear arms as a National Rifle Association editor, Citizens Committee for the Right to Keep and Bear Arms public affairs director, Second Amendment Foundation treasurer, and www.GunRightsPolicies.org founder.

A former Jesuit seminarian, Snyder is founder/manager of Telum Associates, L.L.C., founder/chairman of the St. Gabriel Possenti Society, Inc., a director of Council for America, and serves on the boards of the National Association of Chiefs of Police and the American Federation of Police & Concerned Citizens.

He is author of the book, “Gun Saint.”

He has been quoted extensively by national and local media, testified before Congress and state legislatures in defense of firearms carry by law-abiding citizens, and written about the social and personal merits of ordinary, responsible citizens bearing arms to protect themselves and their communities. He makes for a thoughtful and provocative interview.
