Are You a Leader Leading Leaders?

Tampa, FL (March 1, 2023) – There's an old saying, “It is not what you know, it is who you know.” Could it actually be, “What you know and who you know”?

Leaders share what you know with your team, and introduce them to your mentors and/or people you know who can assist in their personal and or professional growth. Perhaps, your mentors do the same for you - they share their knowledge with you and connect you with their colleagues and their mentors.

What a concept ~ Leaders Leading Leaders!

Imagine surrounding yourself with people you admire and appreciate receiving their advice. People who have the education, experience, and expertise to assist in transforming your ideas into realities who will put you on the path to the mountain top you have been seeking. These people know from that vantage point, you see with clarity. Together, you climb to places no one has ever been before - making your dreams come true!

Sometimes, you hire an expert to accomplish, implement or complete your ideas, projects, and tasks you choose not to do yourself because you choose to focus on what you do best and let others do the rest. Results: you succeed fast and with ease!

LinktoEXPERT has created an Ambassador Program especially for leaders who lead leaders! Imagine working in a virtual skyscraper with your mentors and mentees. Each of you has your own virtual office to showcase your expertise to each other’s contacts and to sell your products and services online 24/7 - making it easy to be hired as the expert and to work together with other members to complete projects that require more than one area of expertise.
