Who Will Lead the Collaboration Age - You?

Tampa, FL (September 8, 2022) – Who do you see taking the lead in the Collaboration Age? Will he/she have connections that count? Will he/she co-create and collaborate with others? Will he/she be a world changer? Will it be YOU?

Ever notice how world changers disrupt the status quo? Do YOU share qualities with these world changers/disrupters?

Warren Buffet – Investor & Philanthropist, Dolly Parton – Philanthropist & Inventor, Elon Musk – Inquisitive & Driven, Sir Richard Branson – Diverse & Exuberant and Jeff Bezos – Expansive & Extraordinary.

They disrupters have learned to dominate their thoughts, which form habits, then character and reputation. They have learned to trust their ideas and to believe in themselves and what they stand for, no matter what others say. They always invest in themselves, explore new opportunities, and learn from coaches, trainers, consultants, and experts in all aspects of their lives. They understand you can't always be the expert, but they can always hire an expert for support in making their dreams come true! They do their best to give their clients/customers the finest service and command that their team does the same. They always provide their best and raise the bar for everyone.

An interesting story I'd like to share is about the three co-founders of Airbnb. They convinced people everywhere to open their homes, to deliver a 7 Star experience to their guests (Hotel's highest rating is 5 Stars). They started back in 2004 and today, they are a $10 to $80 Billion company (Tier 2 company). They have plans to be a Tier 1 Tech Company like Apple, Google, Facebook, Amazon, etc. that have multi hundred-billion-dollar market values. They are disrupters who collaborated and look at how they have succeeded!

Do you think the leader of the Collaboration Age be someone well known? Or do you believe they are someone who is not in the spotlight at all because they have been busily using their imagination to change the world?

Weiland, the Founder of LinktoEXPERT, the Collaborative Cloud Community, believes Collaboration is the key to business success. She thinks the Collaboration Age Leader and her/his team will encourage people from around the world to form alliances and joint ventures, to find experts quickly to bring their inventions to market with ease, build multiple streams of income including making money while they sleep (passive income), and expose their new solutions to their network of networks! Connections is the new currency.

Who do you see leading the Collaboration Age? Will you lead?
