Making it Easy to Be Seen Worldwide

Tampa, FL – Do you want to be seen worldwide? On webinars, internet TV shows, video blogs, and even social media? To save you all sorts of time and money, radio hosts and podcasters today, often interview their guest experts on video. Traditional live conferences and conventions often give you the option of participating online – making it so easy!

To reach more people around the world, Rebecca Hall Gruyter and Joanne Weiland frequently strategize to create new platforms that make it easy for you, the expert, to be seen, be heard.

Joanne Weiland, founder of LinktoEXPERT, was on the Dallas, TX and East Bay, CA Speaker Talent Search™ Panel of Influencers in 2017. She was among many leaders/experts who came together to bring hundreds of speaking opportunities to professional presenters. She found it so exciting, she also participated in the Tampa, FL Speaker Talent Search™ this year.

“If you are an established or aspiring speaker who would love to have a television producer, multiple networks, and community leaders put you in front of their audiences, then you’re about to learn the fastest, easiest way to make that happen. The Speakers Talent Search™ has also teamed up with other leaders holding events with live stages, radio show hosts, a TV host and producer, and several community leaders and we’re combining forces to fill hundreds of speaking spots. We’re also creating powerful events around our speakers and are excited to bring the Speaker Talent Search™ to the global market”, said Rebecca.

Many people believe success comes from who you know. Weiland believes, “It is who knows you and what you can do for them. You must consistently share how you can simplify their life.”

In addition to working together on the Speakers Talent Search™, Rebecca and Joanne collaborate and utilize Rebecca’s RHG Magazine & TV Guide (see story page 5 and LinktoEXPERT ad page 30)
