The Collaboration Age - Who Will be the Leader?

Tampa, FL (April 8, 2022) – Who do you think will lead the Collaboration Age? Will they have connections that count? Will they co-create and collaborate? Will they be a world changer?

Leaders always interrupt the status quo in some way. Here are a few examples:

Warren Buffet – Investor & Philanthropist

Elon Musk – Inquisitive & Driven

Sir Richard Branson – Diverse & Exuberant

Jeff Bezos – Expansive & Extraordinary

These men are all disrupters! With their extraordinary traits, they learned to turn their positive thoughts into habits. They genuinely believe(ed) in themselves and trusted their ideas, no matter what others would say. They understand you can't always be an expert, but you can always hire an expert for support in making dreams come true. They continually invest in themselves, explore new opportunities, learn from coaches, trainers, consultants, and experts in all aspects of their lives.

The highest rating in the hotel industry is 5 Stars. The three co-founders of Airbnb convinced people around the world to open their homes and deliver 7 Star experiences to their guests. They began in 2004 and today they are a Tier 2 company ($10 to $80 Billion) and plan to grow to a Tier 1 Tech Company like Apple, Google, Facebook, Amazon, etc. that have multi hundred-billion-dollar market values. The founders are disrupters who collaborated.

Do you think the leader of the Collaboration Age be well-known or someone who is not in the spotlight? Surely, it will be someone who has been busy using their imagination to change the world because they understand these times.

Collaboration is the key to business success. Weiland, the Founder of LinktoEXPERT, the Collaborative Cloud Community, believes the Collaboration Age Leader and her/his team will encourage people from around the world to form alliances and joint ventures. To find experts fast to bring their inventions to market and with ease and build multiple streams of income including making money while they sleep (passive income). Expose their new solutions to their network of networks! Connections is the new currency.
