What are You Telling Yourself – What Do You Expect?

Tampa, FL (April 27, 2023) - Whether you are just starting your search for a more meaningful life, or realizing that you are not doing what you want to for the rest of your life, or perhaps you have reached the stage where you know there is more. Whatever stage, this is a dare to find your passion. To live the life of your dreams!

Stephen Covey told us we need leaders now, and for the future! His eighth habit says, "Find your voice and inspire others to find theirs." Voice is Covey's code for "unique personal significance." Once you find your voice, you will inspire others to find theirs! It's contagious!

Listen to your self-talk. What are you telling yourself? You may be surprised that you are receiving what you continually tell yourself! It is all connected!

I have a challenge: write a list of what you are expecting right now. You might be amazed at how what you are expecting is often not what you are receiving.

When you know what you want, your thoughts change. You speak encouraging words to yourself and to others. Only do this exercise if you want to change.

What do you want to be known as? I encourage you to continually raise your thoughts -know what you want and focus on that. My first mentor, Norman Vincent Peale, told the world repeatedly in his presentations, books, and his recordings about the power of positive thinking! The results will be enjoyment of a wonderful, exciting, and fun life!

Things to think about: are you sharing, caring, and daring? Are you expansive? Are you setting up systems to automate many of your tasks? Are you creating collaborative partnerships to make your life easier? Do you want to? What do you expect?

This is not an easy assignment; it is much easier to keep doing what you have always done than to venture into this new territory. Consider hiring an expert to assist in your transition. Visit LinktoEXPERT.com where it is easy to find an expert, hire them, and live the life of your dreams.
