

Dominic A. Cingoranelli, CPA, CMC

Strategic Management Expert

Dom Cingoranelli assists organizations with growth, strategy and performance improvement. He helps clients develop strategies and plans to realize their visions and goals, using participative process consulting, as well as traditional management consulting services dealing with performance management and measurement.

He also conducts other management consulting, training and development for general managers, professionals and technical specialists through his work in organization development. Dom earned his MBA with honors from Regis University. He is a Certified Management Consultant and a member of the Institute of Management Consultants and the Society for the Advancement of Consulting. He is a member of the Society for Human Resource Professionals, as well as the American Institute of CPAs, and the Colorado Society of CPAs.

He has performed strategy consulting and planning, process improvement studies, management consulting, training and development, team building, coaching and group process facilitation for a variety of groups. His clients include professional and trade associations, project managers and executives on large, complex projects for major manufacturers, midsize to very large businesses, and other organizations dealing with change, performance and leadership issues.

Dom and his firm, Wilson Downing Group, LLC assist a wide variety of organizations with improvement strategies and implementation. They maintain an industry concentration in the design and construction industry, and in construction-related businesses. As part of his work with the construction industry, Dom provides partnering facilitation and assistance for project management teams on projects ranging from $1 million to over $300 million in size. In addition to partnering charter sessions, he also provides assistance to teams on troubled projects through practical, behavior-based conflict resolution and work outs that result in effective teamwork for the balance of the project
