

WILLIAM R. GRIFFIN

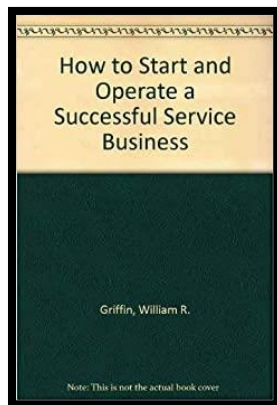

CLEANING CONSULTANT

www.twitter.com/cleanconsultant

William R. Griffin has over 25-years-experience in the Cleaning Industry. If you are starting your own business, have questions about an existing business, or just need some advice, you really should talk to Mr. Griffin. Mr. Griffin has consulted with large and small business, schools, hospitals, sports stadiums and many other organizations too numerous to list.

From basic questions, to in-depth analysis, Mr. Griffin has done it all. Listed below are some of the ways that Mr. Griffin Makes himself available. If none of the methods below fit your needs, give Cleaning Consultant Services, Inc. a call and I'm sure we can come up with something to fit your needs.

In 1973, Bill Griffin started Cleaning Consultant Services, Inc. to market his first book, a technical training manual for professional cleaners titled Comprehensive Custodian Training Manual (CTM).

Since then, he has written numerous books, including How to Start and Operate a Successful Service Business, which is a 300-plus page manual that provides practical advice and information on such management subjects as marketing, supervision, employee training, bidding, and information regarding how to start over 20 different service businesses with limited capital.

He has experience in the cleaning industry as a cleaner, consultant, trainer, expert witness, and is certified as a Registered Executive Housekeeper (REH) by the International Executive Housekeepers Association (www.IEHA.org)

BG1@CCSML.COM

When you have a problem, need information, or would like the input and advice of an independent, third-party professional regarding any cleaning related subject or business matter, you can call Mr. Griffin at 206-824-4434

www.CCSINSPECTIONS.COM

CONTACT :

206-824-4434

BG1@CCSML.COM

www.CLEANINGCONSULTANTS.COM